Tuition fees, the lifeblood of your business. More often than not, tuition fees require adjustments before they are posted to an account. Jackrabbit makes it easy for you, we do all the math and make the adjustments automatically!

It's important to answer these questions before you make decisions on where and how to post your tuition fees:

- ★ Tuition Settings - How often will you post tuition fees (Billing Cycle)? Will you charge tuition based on the cost per class (By Class Fee) or based on the number of hours of class instruction (By Total Hours)? Learn how to define and set your tuition settings
- ★ Discounting - Do you offer discounts for multiple students in a family taking classes, students who take multiple classes, or other types of discounts? Learn about discounting tuition fees
- ★ Prorating - Do you prorate tuition fees for students who enroll after a billing cycle has started, when your facility is closed, when a class meets more than the standard number of times in a month (4)? Learn about prorating tuition fees
- ★ Fixed Fees - Do you have students or families that have special billing arrangements? Student Fixed Fees and Family Fixed Fees allow you to override all tuition posting calculations and just post a set amount per billing period. Learn about Fixed Fees.
